

Yale Council on African Studies

Brown Bag Lunch Series Spring 2015

Room 203 • Luce Hall • 34 Hillhouse Avenue
Thursdays at 12:30pm

Please join us for lunch, lecture, and discussion

Jan 29

Will 2015 be the year for African women?

Susana Edjang, 2014 Yale World Fellow (Economic, Social and Development Affairs Officer, UN)

Feb 5

Ground Observation of Chinese Development Projects in Africa

Tianjuan Hou, Lindsay Fellow and MESC Candidate (FES)

Feb 12

African Penguin Conservation in Cape Town, South Africa

Linda Holcombe, Lindsay Fellow and MESC Candidate (FES)

Feb 19

Lawyering in the Trenches: Human Rights Litigation in South Africa

Michael Eastman, MA Candidate, Global Affairs

Feb 26

Fathering in Post-conflict Sierra Leone: Assessing Challenges and Resources for Family Wellbeing

Kristen McLean, Lindsay Fellow and PhD Candidate, Anthropology

Mar 5

Welfare, Disability and the State: Deciding Who “Deserves” Social Assistance in South Africa

Gabrielle Kelly, Fox International Fellow (PhD Candidate, Sociology, University of Cape Town)

Mar 26

The Perceived Benefits from Protected Areas in the Virunga Massif (Congo Basin)

Sarah Tolbert, Lindsay Fellow and Joint MA/MES Candidate (Global Affairs & FES)

Apr 2

Turnover of Political Elites in Tunisia: A Micro-Macro Level Study

Jean-Baptiste Gallopin, Lindsay Fellow and PhD Candidate, Sociology

Apr 9

Power Alliances in Khartoum

Marie Besancon, Associate Professor and Senior Fellow, TransResearch Consortium, Portland State University

Apr 16

Cocoa Supply Chains in Ghana

Matthew Archer, Lindsay Fellow and PhD Candidate, FES

Apr 23

Youth and Nation-Building in Burundi

Etienne Mashuli, Lindsay Fellow and MA Candidate, African Studies

The Yale Council on African Studies

at the Whitney and Betty MacMillan Center for International and Area Studies at Yale

Rosenkranz Hall • 115 Prospect Street

www.yale.edu/macmillan/african