

Yale Council on African Studies

BROWN BAG LUNCH SERIES Fall 2015

Please join us for lunch, lecture, and discussion
Room 203 • Luce Hall • 34 Hillhouse Avenue
Thursdays at 12:30pm

SEPT 24

When do Donor Agencies Suspend Aid?

Haley Swedlund, Visiting Scholar;
Radboud University Nijmegen

OCT 1

Who Pays for Child Education? How Poor Egyptian Mothers Finance their Children's Learning

Heba Gowayed, PhD Student, Sociology,
Princeton University

OCT 8

Mitigating Risks Related to Climate Change through Improved Infrastructure

Tazona Chaponda, 2015 Yale World Fellow;
Genesis Analytics Economic Advisory

OCT 15

Creation of a State Within a State: Analyzing the Boko Haram Uprising in Nigeria

Idayat Hassan, 2015 Yale World Fellow;
Centre for Democracy and Development

OCT 29

Payment for Ecosystem Services near Rwanda's Nyungwe & Gishwati National Parks

Kristin Lambert, MEM Student, Forestry and Environmental Studies, Yale University

NOV 5

Political Elites and Social Policy in Anglophone Africa

Jeremy Seekings, Visiting Professor;
University of Cape Town

NOV 12

What's the Noise about Corruption in Africa?

Njoya Tikum, 2015 Yale World Fellow;
United Nations Development Programme

NOV 19

Never Enough Gloves: Small Scale Healthcare in Rural Uganda

Lindsay Geoghegan, MSN Student,
Yale School of Nursing

DEC 3

Media as Transformation in Africa

Akisa Omulepu, 2015 Yale World Fellow;
Media & Entertainment

DEC 10

The Administrative Politics of Disability: Medical Disability Assessments as Sites of Contestation over Rights to Social Welfare in South Africa

Gabby Kelly, PhD Candidate, Sociology,
University of Cape Town

The Yale Council on African Studies

at the Whitney and Betty MacMillan Center for International and Area Studies at Yale

african.macmillan.yale.edu • Rosenkranz Hall • 115 Prospect Street