

Yale Council on African Studies

BROWN BAG LUNCH SERIES Spring 2016

Please join us for lunch, lecture, and discussion
Room 241 • Rosenkranz Hall • 115 Prospect Street
Thursdays at 12:30pm

JAN 21

Health Needs and Healthcare Seeking in Remote Areas of the Republic of Congo

Tian Tian Cai, MPH Student
Yale School of Public Health

JAN 28

Planting Trees, Tapping Ghanaians: Cultivating Rubber and Nationhood in Ghana, 1957 – Present

Keri Lambert, PhD Student, History
Yale University

FEB 4

Intimacy and Authenticity in Zanzibari Sex Commerce

Py Killen, MA Student, African Studies
Yale University

FEB 11

Ecological Recovery of Gold Mining Sites in Nyungwe National Park, Rwanda

Rafael Roca, MEd/MBA Student
Yale Forestry & Environmental Studies
Yale School of Management

FEB 18

History of Prisons in Greater Lesotho

Samuel Severson, PhD Student, History
Yale University

FEB 25

Media (mis)representations of the Oscar Pistorius trial saga

Charl Linde, PhD Student/Fox Fellow
University of Cape Town

MAR 3

Keeping Families Together: Aging and Caregiving in Post-Genocide Rwanda

Aalyia Feroz Ali Sadruddin, PhD Student
Anthropology, Yale University

MAR 10

Indigenous Rights and Deforestation: Myth and Realities in the Eastern DR Congo

Sarah Tolbert, MEM/MA Student, Global Affairs
Yale Forestry & Environmental Studies

APR 7

Community Owned Data and Land Tenure Security in the Uganda's Slums

Aisha Pasha, MEM Student
Yale Forestry & Environmental Studies

APR 15

Road and State Maintenance in Kenya

Nikita Bernardi, MA Student, African Studies
Yale University

APR 21

Body of Shame: Encounters with Power in Southern African Examination Rooms

Efe Igor, PhD Student, History
Yale University

The Yale Council on African Studies

at the Whitney and Betty MacMillan Center for International and Area Studies at Yale

african.macmillan.yale.edu • Rosenkranz Hall • 115 Prospect Street