

Yale Council on African Studies

Lecture Series • Spring 2017

Room 203 • Luce Hall • 34 Hillhouse Avenue
Wednesdays at 4:30pm

February 3

Art and Education in Apartheid South Africa

Daniel Magaziner, Yale University

Cosponsored with the Yale University Art Gallery

February 8

Violence and Humanitarianism in the Congo Free State

David Gordon, Bowdin College

February 15

Madaraja (Bridges): Reflections on Tanzania's Response to the U.S. Black Power Movement

Seth Markle, Trinity College

February 22

Socio-Cultural Diversity of the African Middle Class – Results from Empirical Research on Middle-class Milieus in Urban Kenya

Florian Stoll, Yale University

March 8

Greening the Urban Sustainability Gap in Nigeria: Innovative Approaches to Sustainable Waste Management in Selected Cities

Felix Olorunfemi, Nigerian Institute of Social and Economic Research

March 29

Queering Cape Town: Race-ing in a post/apartheid city

Zethu Matebeni, Huma Institute of Humanities in Africa and Yale University

April 5

A Hauntology of Cape Town: From Slavery to #RhodesMustFall

Nick Shepherd, University of Cape Town

April 12

Citizen-Suspect: Navigating the Transnational Security State in Urban Kenya

Samar Al-Bulushi, Yale University

April 20

Is Jihad Overrated? Lessons from West African Islam

Lamin Sanneh, Yale University

April 26

TBA

Michael Veal, Yale University

The Council on African Studies at the Whitney and Betty MacMillan Center for International and Area Studies at Yale

Rosenkranz Hall • 115 Prospect Street
african.macmillan.yale.edu